

KINGSTON UNIVERSITY

UK-TEFL courses are held in Kingston at Dorich House, Kingston University.

Dorich House is a beautiful building which houses a huge collection of sculptor Dora Gordine's work, plus fine examples of Russian Imperial art and furniture. The house became Museum in 2004 and is a popular destination for exhibition and events.

DIRECTIONS

Dorich House Campus

67-69 Kingston Vale
London
SW15 3RN
Tel: 020 8547 7519

By Train and Bus

From Kingston

Exit railway station, cross pedestrian crossing towards Hawaiian BBQ restaurant. Walk up Cromwell Road to bus station. Take the 85 bus and get off at the Woodview Close stop.

From Putney

Take the 85 bus from outside Putney station or Putney Bridge tube Station and get off at the Woodview close stop.

By Car

From the North

Head southwest on New King's Road/A308 towards Parsons Green and turn left at Putney Bridge and continue to follow A219 for a mile. At Tibbets Corner take the 3rd exit onto the Kingston Road/A3. Merge onto Kingston Road and continue to follow A3. Keep right at the fork to continue towards Kingston Vale and turn right to stay on Kingston Vale. Take the first left to stay on Kingston Vale and continue to follow Kingston Vale. Destination will be on the right.

From the South/Kingston Upon Thames

Head south on Hook Road/A243 towards Ash Tree Close for half a mile. At Hook Junction take the 1st exit onto the A3 ramp to Central London/A240. Merge onto Kingston Bypass/A3 and continue to follow A3 for approx. 6 miles. Turn left at Kingston vale /A3 and continue to follow Kingston Vale. Destination will be on the right.